

LUKE: Winter is so late this year.

JUNE: What are you talking about? It's cold.

LUKE Yeah, but it hasn't even snowed yet. They say it may not at all this year.

JUNE Well, that's depressing. When I was in college, I used to go to the English department to study. And there was a fireplace, and it was warm. I was all by myself.

LUKE That sounds safe. Flammable material

JUNE It was magical. Yeah. It was very romantic by myself.

LUKE So, uh, in college, did you and Moira ever

JUNE Did we ever what?

LUKE You know, did you ever

JUNE What, do you think all girls just go through a gay phase?

LUKE No, look, it's just you two are very close and you're both very attractive and, in my experience, these things sometimes happen.

JUNE Your experience as a lesbian?

LUKE All right, forget it.

JUNE Or your experience as a college girl?

LUKE I retract the question, okay?

JUNE No! No, for the record. I actually haven't even told Moira that we've been having lunch and hanging out. I don't know why. I just I feel like she'd be weird about it.

LUKE Hmm. Yeah, I don't tell Annie either.

JUNE Really? What do you say?

LUKE I just I just tell her I had lunch at my desk.

JUNE I mean, it's just It's so dumb. We're not even doing anything.

LUKE Exactly, that's why I'm just, like, we're having lunch in broad daylight.

JUNE Yes. With four adorable children.

LUKE Children watching, right? Where would we even go, you know?

JUNE Uh, where would we go? We couldn't go to my place. Moira's there, working.

LUKE What do people in the movies do?

JUNE In the movies?

LUKE They get a room.

JUNE Yes. Yeah, they get a room. Some, like, um - Dirty Pay by the hour place.

LUKE Yeah.

JUNE Gross.

LUKE No, it could be fun. They'd have one of those vibrating beds. Think about it. We could go to the Hyatt.

JUNE Hmm. Yeah. One of those, you know, higher rooms with a view of the city at night.

LUKE So, how would it work? I'd just Come surprise you after work, or No.

JUNE No, never. No surprises. I need 48 hours.

LUKE Right. Time to get a restraining order.

JUNE Yes, file the papers.

LUKE Right. Yeah.

JUNE No, I mean, I need to Personal grooming and Um Pick out some lingerie.

LUKE What, you know what you'd wear?

JUNE I have ideas.

LUKE It's not gonna happen, though.

JUNE No.

LUKE No.

JUNE No.
