

CONSTANCE

I am beginning to think you're a fraud. And that nail polish is vulgar.

BILLIE

Don't take it out on me just because your dead daughter is mad at you.

CONSTANCE

Now, why the hell would you say that to me?

BILLIE

Because you're capable of handling the truth. I see it all the time. The dead can hold a grudge better than most Scorpios.

CONSTANCE

I want to talk to her, Billie. I have one last thing... that I have to say to her. I just miss her so terribly. She was my reason for living.

BILLIE

She says you should have told her that when she was alive. She's a feisty one. Talk to her. She's here. Come on.

CONSTANCE

Baby... I am so sorry. I'm sorry because... most of the time that I was with you, especially when you were younger, I was just so overwhelmed. It wasn't easy being a single parent, and you were such a handful. So I guess I forgot to say the things that I was supposed to say, but that I honestly always felt in my heart. I am so proud of you, Addie. I admire you so... for what you were able to overcome. And I think you're beautiful. Addie, I think you are the most beautiful girl... I ever met.

BILLIE

She says thank you. And that she knows. And that where she is now, on the other side... she's a pretty girl at last. She also wants you to know that she's grateful. For not getting her to the lawn at the old house. She doesn't want to be with Tate. She's afraid of him now that she knows the truth.