

HAL

You dragged me out of the Blossom's house and you don't talk to me the whole way home?

BETTY

Dad, Jason and Polly were engaged. Did you know that? Oh my god. Of course you did.

Is that what you and Clifford Blossom were talking about?

HAL

That is none of your business.

BETTY

Yes, it is my business. So stop avoiding it and just tell me what's going on.

HAL

Clifford and I were arguing because he and his filthy clan came this close to destroying our family. Your little friend Chery's great grandfather murdered yours. Betty.

BETTY

Why?

HAL

The same reason they do everything. Greed and hate. They were in business together. Selling and trading maple syrup. And one day Grandfather Blossom decided he didn't want to share the profits. So he murdered my grandfather in cold blood.

BETTY

That's why you hated Jason? Because of some blood feud that happened before you were even born.

HAL

They stole our livelihood Betty. And i'd die before I let them steal my daughter too.

BETTY

Where is she?

HAL

She is sick and Jason made her sick. She's not coming home until she isn't sick anymore. Fair warning. Stay out of it.
