MAN
Are you OK?

WOMAN
Yeah. Just wanna tell you something. It's weird, you know. When you're here, you don't feel like you're in a white-nationalist ethno-state run by a fake pee-cratic dictator.  You just feel like you're on a pretty beach.

MAN
Yeah. You'd never know.

WOMAN
I'm sorry that you find it a struggle to make me happy. Because really, you make me happy every day. I mean most days.

MAN
Honey, I seriously didn't mean those awful things that I said. I just thought, you know, "What would be meanest?"

WOMAN
Yeah, but I get why you said it. So let's do it, you know? Let's move here. We could have a good life here.

MAN
Look, I'm a husk of a man. And if you wanna be with this, then, I don't care where we do it. It could be London or Boston or fuckin' Cairo. Just tell me where to be and when, and I'll do it.

WOMAN
I'm pregnant.

MAN
I know. I saw the test in the trash can. You left it, like, on top of the pile of trash, and I figured it wasn't Sydney's or my mom's.

WOMAN
Oh, God! What do you think?

MAN
I threw up when I saw it.

WOMAN
Yeah. Me, too.

MAN
But then I thought why not? I mean, it could be fun. What do you think?

WOMAN
Yesterday I definitely didn't wanna have any more of your children, but I mean, now, sitting here, and you look so handsome I really wanna have it. I really wanna push out a tiny little baby and just kiss it and smell it.  Can I ask you something?

MAN
I didn't fart. There's an algae here that smells like It smells like my farts.

WOMAN
No. Just do you think we would've ended up together? I mean, if you hadn't've got me pregnant the first time.

MAN
If I met you right now, I'd still wanna fuck you for a week, and get you pregnant and marry you, and mess it all up from there.

WOMAN
Let's do that, then. Do you wanna jump in quickly? The kids are asleep.

MAN
No.

WOMAN
Why?

MAN
I don't wanna have fun right now.  What are you doing?

WOMAN
Having fun!

MAN
Sharon! Thought you didn't wanna swim! I didn't like seeing you adrift in there on your own.
