JACK(V.O.)

I hope as you read this you can see now that the world is changing. Whether people know it or not we are at war, and we are losing. I have left you some money through insurance and savings to help you live out your life in peace. I wanted to say I am sorry, I made a mistake in a moment of weakness and now I will pay the price. One thing that gives me comfort is I can save you. Take the money and start a new life, away from people, but most importantly away from MP Corp and anything they make. I didn't understand how, but that is the way they watch us and prey on us in our weakest moments. There is nothing you can do for me or anyone else, nobody will believe you anyhow, so focus on yourself. Try finding peace and happiness, that is the only way to stay safe. Try to remember me for who I was and not where I am. Know that the thought of you even for that one night will comfort me for two eternities.
Forever yours, Jack.

Gloria sits back in her couch and puts the note to her chest and feels a sense of comfort and love from it. Suddenly there is a knocking at the door.

FORMEAN

Are you sure you don't want us to get some MP stuff? It will cut the cost in half. Plus their smart wallpaper is unbelievable, you can watch television on it on any wall in your house. Change the theme to make any room feel like you are anywhere in the world. It is like your gateway to the unimaginable.

GLORIA

No! I want everything local, I don't want anything from MP Corp. I don't care how cheap they are.

FOREMAN

Are you sure? It could have been done for one third the cost.

GLORIA

I am sure, the cost doesn't concern me. Thanks guys.

Gloria closes the door. The foreman's assist pokes the foreman in the side.

ASSISTANT

Dude, you need to tell her.

FOREMAN

Get to work. Everything we buy is from MP one way or another, what she doesn't know won't hurt her. Now get a move on boy.

ASSISTANT

It is still wrong, she needs to know you are overcharging her.

FOREMAN

Don't think I won't beat the shit out of you because you are my brother-in-law. Zip it and get to work.

— END

The foreman walks towards his truck and gets in. Tim sitting next to him smiling, the foreman drives off as the construction workers are working on Gloria's home. The camera pulls back from Gloria's house to show a sea of MP Corp trucks outside of homes under construction just over the trees from Gloria's.
